

NONSCHOOL EMPLOYMENT

No employee of the board may take advantage of his or her position in the school division to promote, endorse or sell any educational aids to students or parents of students enrolled in the school division.

No employee of the board may accept any commission from any person or persons for goods or services paid for through the schools or by the school board.

Employees of the board may accept outside employment provided that the employment does not interfere with or affect the quality of performance for which the board hired the employee. The superintendent may require employees to report all outside employment.
