

MARRIED STUDENTS

Married students of school age who desire to discontinue their education must follow procedures to be released from compulsory school attendance. These students who continue their education shall be afforded the same rights and responsibilities as other students.

Adopted: September 8, 1997

Legal Reference:

Code of VA 22.1-3. Persons to whom public schools shall be free.

(Editor's Note: See the references to opinions of the Virginia Attorney General concerning married students following 22.1-3 of the Code of Virginia)

(PSCB)